

Homearama® 2023
Not your traditional Homearama

Since 1968, the Building Industry of Greater Louisville (BIA) has been bringing you Homearama®. This year, the BIA is shaking things up with Homearama 2023. Instead of being held in one community, guests will be able to tour nine luxury custom-built and fully decorated homes located throughout the region in Spencer, Oldham, and Jefferson County.

“2023 will give the public a unique opportunity to experience a wide range of unique custom built Homearama® homes throughout the region.” said Juva Barber, Executive Vice President of BIA.

Whether you’re in the market for a new home or an HGTV binge watcher who loves home interiors, you’ll want to mark your calendars for Homearama 2023. Powered by LG&E, the event showcases the latest in building trends, technology, and interior design over three weekends.
